Policy Statement

The Health & Safety at Work etc. Act 1974 imposes statutory duties on employers and employees. A range of topic specific legislation imposes statutory duties on Landlords in relation to the protection of the Health, Safety and Welfare of tenants and others who may be affected by the Organisation’s undertaking as a landlord.

To enable these statutory duties to be carried out, it is the policy of the Organisation, so far as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that responsibilities for health and safety are assigned, accepted, and fulfilled at all levels of the Organisation.

It is the Policy of the Organisation, so far as is reasonably practicable, to prevent injuries, incidents and ill-health that may be associated with its property portfolio and to ensure the health, safety, and welfare of all employees; and to conduct the business in such a way that the Health & Safety of visitors, to any premises under our control, is not put at risk.

It is the intention of the Organisation, so far as is reasonably practicable, to ensure that:

- a) The living environment of all tenants is safe and without risks to health or safety and that adequate provisions are made regarding the safety of premises and facilities.

	b) The working environment of all employees is safe and without risks to health and that adequate provisions are made regarding the facilities and arrangements for their welfare at work. c) The provision and maintenance of machines, equipment and systems of work which are safe and without risks to health to tenants, service users, employees, contractors, and any other person who may be affected regarding any premises or operations under our control. d) All Statutory inspection regimes are implemented and maintained so far as reasonably practicable to comply with legislation, codes of practice and best practice. e) Adequate information is made available to tenants and others in relation to facilities and premises related hazards and risks. f) Arrangements for use, handling, storage and transport of articles and substances for use at work are safe and without risks to health. g) Adequate information is available with respect to machines and substances used at work detailing the conditions and precautions necessary to ensure that when properly used they will be safe and without risk to health. h) Employees are provided with such instruction, training, and supervision as is necessary to secure their Health &amp; Safety and that the Landlord's health and safety responsibilities may be adequately discharged. It shall be the duty of all employees at work, including those with defined responsibilities under the Health &amp; Safety Management System to ensure: a) That reasonable steps are taken to safeguard the Health &amp; Safety of themselves and of other persons who may be affected by their acts or omissions at work. b) Co-operation with the Board and Senior Management Team so far as is necessary to ensure compliance with any duty or requirement imposed on the employer, or any other person, under any relevant statutory duties. This Policy Statement shall be presented on the Organisation's web site and made available to all staff to ensure that all interested parties can view this commitment to Health and Safety. Parties requiring further, more detailed information on the system shall be provided with all such reasonable information by the Organisation's Corporate Support Team. All accidents, incidents, ill health and near misses associated with a potential breach of the Association's Health and Safety duties shall be reported to the Chief Executive and shall be appropriately investigated and reported to external Authorities/Bodies where appropriate.
